

Housing Authority Resident Services--Family Self-Sufficient Program

This program is for people who live in Village Central or Pine Village. It helps those who want to take care of themselves. Please call or see website to learn more.

This goal means:

- The head of household has gained employment and
 - All family members are free of cash assistance for 12 months
- or
- 30% of their monthly income is equal to or more than the fair market rent for their current home.

The resident service department is for people who live in Village Central or Pine Village. It helps families who want to take care of themselves such as:

- Finding childcare
- Finding a way to get around
- Help finding a (better) job
- Going back to school to learn more and get better skills
- Improving your credit
- Overcoming a criminal background
