

Diocese of Saint Augustine - Refugee Resettlement Program

Diocese of St. Augustine provides the Refugee Resettlement Program.

The program assists local families and individuals who:

- Enter the United States as refugees, Cuban/Haitian entrants or parolees
- Resettled refugees without sponsoring family members in the United States, and foreign nationals in the United States who have been granted asylum by the Immigration Courts

They help refugees become self-sufficient within 3 to 4 months of arrival.

Their services include assistance in:

- Airport reception
- Assistance with housing
- Education
- ESL
- Food
- Furniture
- Job readiness
- Limited financial assistance
