

Explore Adoption Services - Florida Department of Children and Families

Explore Adoption is a statewide adoption program. It promotes public adoption. As well as adopting a "special needs" child. This means a child who is older. Or a child that has a medical condition. Or a child that is a part of a sibling group. You can view profiles of the children who are ready to be adopted. There are post adoption services. As well many other support services. Please call or visit the website to learn more.
