

Children's Assistance Program -Chapters Health System (Pasco County)

Chapters Health System - Children's Assistance Program helps kids from 1st grade to 18 years old who are dealing with grief. The program offers counseling to support children who are sad after losing someone.

The program also has a summer day camp and a spring weekend camp for kids who are grieving. At the camps, kids can do things like art therapy, team activities, and a special memorial service.
