

In-Home and Community Care - ACL Region 4

This group works to support individuals in their own homes. It also help others who are in community-based settings. It does this by funding many services and organizations. Please call 800.677.1116 or visit the website to learn more.

Services include:

- Aging and Disability Networks
- Connecting People to Services
- Consumer Choice and Control
- Data Collection Projects
- Employment
- Empowering Advocacy
- For American Indians, Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians
- Health, Wellness, and Nutrition
- Inclusive Transportation
- Program Evaluations and Reports
- Protecting Rights and Preventing Abuse
- Research and Development
- Retirement Planning and Pension Support
- Strengthening the Aging and Disability Networks
- Support for People with Alzheimer's Disease
- Support for People with Limb Loss, Paralysis, and TBI
- Support to Caregivers
- Volunteer Opportunities and Civic Engagement

Service Location

330 C St SW
Washington, DC 20201
United States

800.677.1116

Provider

Administration for Community Living

URL

<https://acl.gov/>

This group helps older adults and people of all ages with disabilities. They connect those in need with programs and grants. Technical assistance is also offered. They work to help these individuals live independently. They also work to help them live fully in their communities. Support for community living may be available.

Services include:

- Aging and Disability Networks
- Connecting People to Services
- Consumer Choice and Control
- Data Collection Projects
- Employment
- Empowering Advocacy
- For American Indians, Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians
- Health, Wellness, and Nutrition
- Inclusive Transportation
- Program Evaluations and Reports
- Protecting Rights and Preventing Abuse
- Research and Development
- Retirement Planning and Pension Support
- Strengthening the Aging and Disability Networks
- Support for People with Alzheimer's Disease
- Support for People with Limb Loss, Paralysis, and TBI
- Support to Caregivers
- Volunteer Opportunities and Civic Engagement

Address

330 C St SW
Washington, DC 20201
United States

202.401.4634

Source URL: <https://www.rightservicefl.org/node/21395>