

Support Services - Center for Autism and Related Disabilities FSU

CARD is a group that works with people with Autism or related disabilities. They also work with their families. The group offers free consultations, resources, and emotional support to those in need. Their goal is to help clients build knowledge and confidence in their daily lives and their care. Please call 800.769.7926 or visit the website to learn more.

Services Include:

- Community Outreach
- Family and Professional Training
- Individualized Client and Family Support
- Programmatic Consultation and Technical Assistance
- Public Education and Awareness

Service Location

4750 Collegiate Dr, Barron Bldg Rm A303
Panama City, FL 32405
United States

800.769.7926

Provider

URL

<https://fsucard.com/>

This group is called FSU CARD for short. It serves eighteen counties in the panhandle. The group helps individuals across their lifespan. This is so they can become valued members of their community. The help is for individuals with Autism or related disabilities. It is also their families and professionals that they work with.

Public Email

autism@med.fsu.edu

Address

2312 Killearn Center Blvd, Bldg A

Tallahassee, FL 32309

United States

850.644.4367

Source URL: <https://www.rightservicefl.org/node/21589>